January-June 2016
Initial consultation on options to simplify the payment of taxes.
Taxpayers can see how their National Insurance contributions affect their State Pension through their digital account.
Every one of the UK's 5 million small businesses and every individual Taxpayers will have access to their own digital tax account, where they can see what HMRC holds on file about them.
Webchat introduced to support PAYE taxpayers in their digital tax account.
Testing starts for secure communication between taxpayers and HMRC in their DT account.
Public consultation on the scope and operation of more frequent reporting of information by businesses to HMRC using digital tools. Includes consultation on third part information.
Public consultation on simplifying HMRC's tax administration.
July-December 2016
Comprehensive testing starts for digital reporting of accounts by small businesses.
Bank and building society interest above the personal savings allowance included in tax codes for pensioners and employees.
January-June 2017
Authorised tax agents able to manage their clients' digital tax accounts.
Testing starts on using "real-time information" to show taxpayers how their personal allowances are shared between jobs and pensions.
Testing starts for digital reporting of income from letting property in preparation for July 2017 reporting.
July-December 2017
New online billing system begins.
Taxpayers able to report additional sources of income through their digital tax account.
January-June 2018
Digital tax accounts show taxpayers an overview of their tax liabilities consolidated in one place.
Automatic tax code adjustments prevent PAYE under and overpayments.
July-December 2016
Bank and building society interest starts to be shown in all personal DT accounts.
2019
Most businesses, including self-employed and landlords start updating HMRC quarterly for income tax and National Insurance obligations through their accounting software.
Reporting of Child Benefit to HMRC by tax payers to cease.
2020
Most businesses, self-employed and landlords start updating HMRC quarterly for VAT obligations through their accounting software.
CGT on disposals of residential properties needs to be paid within 30 days.
Most companies start updating HMRC quarterly for Corporation Tax obligations through their online accounting software.
Completed range of HMRC services are available through digital tax accounts.